Graduation with Academic Distinction

Students graduating with academic distinction are wearing a silk stole. A student who earns a grade point average of 3.90 or better is graduated “with distinction” (†; gold stole). A student who earns a grade point average of 3.95 or better is graduated “with high distinction” (††; gold stole with blue edging).

Honor Cords

Students may be wearing honor cords of various colors, presented to them by professional organizations within the School of Pharmacy in recognition of outstanding leadership and/or service to the organization or profession.

Green and Gold: Member of the honorary pharmacy leadership society, Phi Lambda Sigma

Light Blue and White: Recognizing outstanding service to the APhA Academy of Student Pharmacists
